should be joined and increased, or should be referred to a select committee, or should be passed as printed in the Appro-priation Bill. Hon C. R. Bishop had referred to the disingennousness of the financial statements of Ministers, to the want of certainty in the whole of their re-ports, and further, said that there was such a state of things prevalent in the conduct of the business of the country as in its support.

The Minister then went on to review the debate and said: The honorable mem ber for Lihue did net complain of the items in the estimates, but brought
